

ABOUT

ALAFLOW is a duo music project originally formed in Santa Barbara, CA. Known for their high energy, clean and unique mixing style, and creative original productions, ALAFLOW aims to take their project to new heights while locally based in San Francisco, California.

ALAFLOW has played opening sets for a variety of leading industry performers of different genres such as Amtrac, Sacha Robotti, VOLAC, K?D, Tommy Trash, Claude Vonstroke, AC Slater, and BlackGummy. While in residency at EOS Lounge in Santa Barbara, they were invited to perform at Earl Warren Showgrounds for Music is Love's annual Halloween event, featuring the likes of Ghastly, Mija, and SNBRN.

ALAFLOW has gained immense support from not only people in California, but across the world. They are well known for bringing large crowds early to dance to their sets. With their originals and mixes receiving thousands of plays and likes on SoundCloud, they have made powerful statements as up-and-coming artists in the global electronic music scene. With goals of becoming top musical artists, and an initiative to positively impact peoples' lives through music, the sky is truly the limit for these two.
